ACTIVITIES —————

"The Year of the Bear" was the theme selected for 1966 Homecoming. The Sophomore bonfire, pep rallies, and dress-up day contributed to the school spirit during Homecoming Festivities. Weeks of work and planning went into class and club floats for the Homecoming parade through town. After the 18-7 victory over the Crater Comets, Queen Susan presided over the dance which ended the '66 Homecoming week.

Drums rolled as "ASHLAND" was burned into the bank at the South end of Walter COMING '66".

Silhouettes against a background of the Sophomore bonfire reflect the spirit that prevailed during Homecoming week.

A large metallic globe and a ceiling draped with red and white streamers dominate decorations at the annual homecoming dance following the Ashland-Crater game.

"Comets, Breakfast of Champions" was the theme of the award-winning Junior class float.

Juniors Revive Dogpatch Days

The female members of AHS had their chance to choose the date of their dreams for the traditional Sadie Hawkins Dance, November 19.

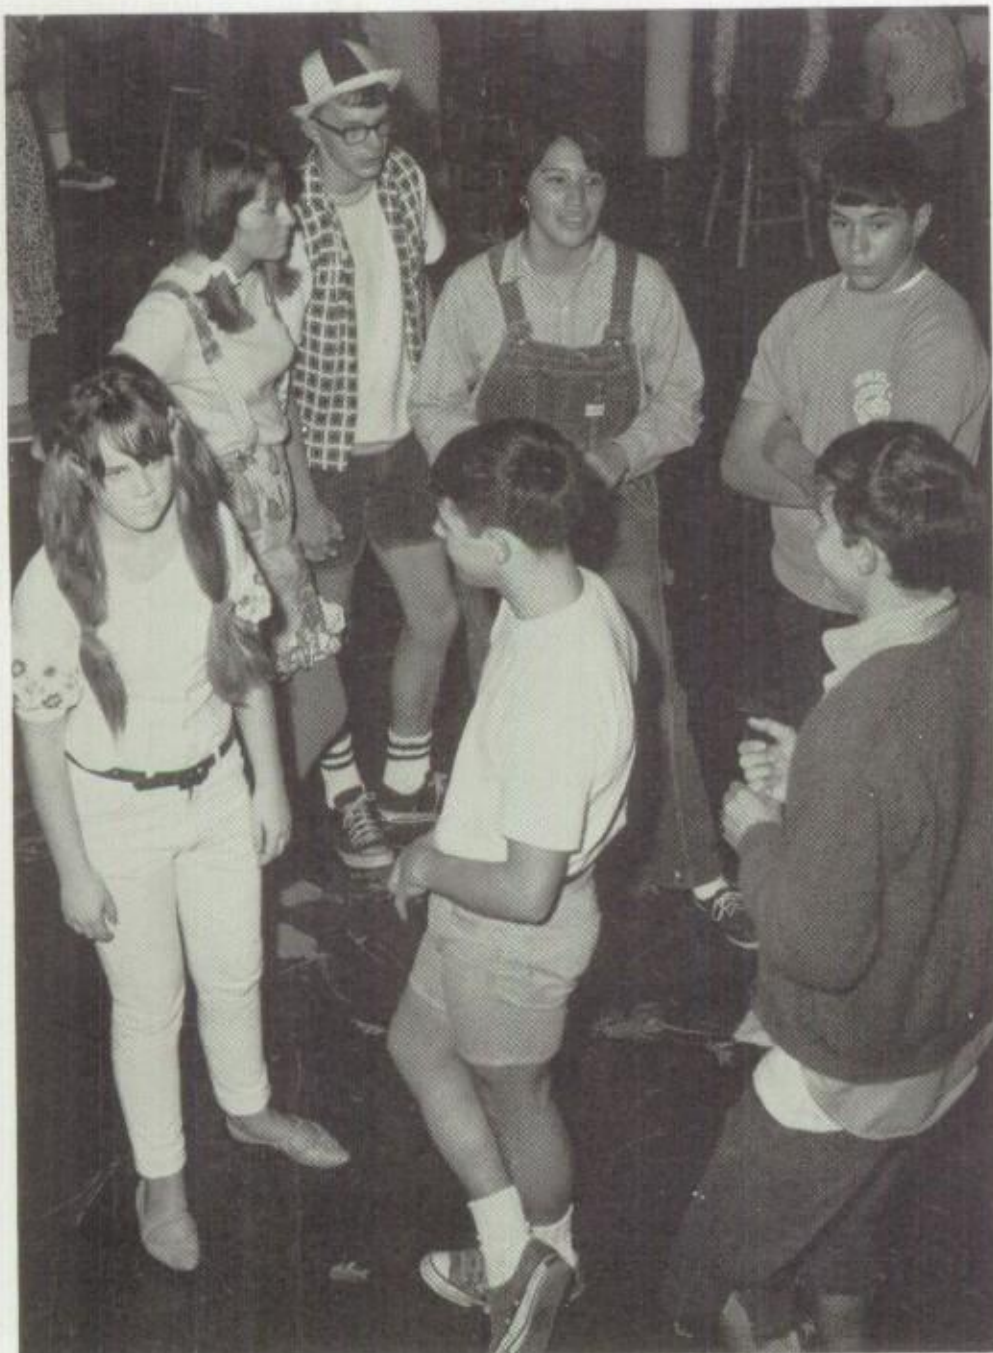

The annual girl-ask-boy affair featured Dogpatch-style costumes. Betsy Cope and Tom Davis sported the most imaginative costumes and were named "Mr. and Miss Dogpatch." Costume judging followed the grand march around the cafeteria. Jim Williams and Chris Houghton were on hand throughout the dance with rings and rice for use in mock marriage ceremonies.

The dance featured an autumn color scheme with leaves, tree stumps, and acorns being used for decorations. The Sadie Hawkins is a yearly junior class project. Proceeds are used to finance the prom.

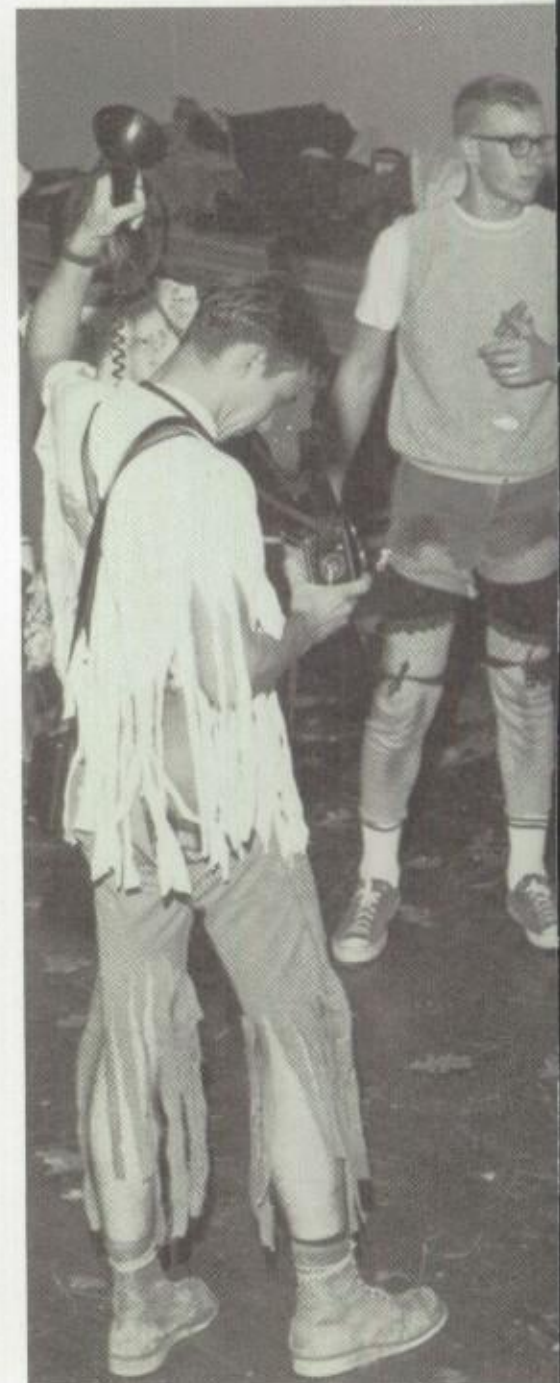

Ross Coldwell, Tony Gallager, Lillette Tumbagahan, and Sally Rountree pose for the photographer during a "traffic jam" in the costume parade.

Heather Edmonds looks unhappy after Gary Spruill rejected her marriage proposal. Debbie McMonigal, Wes Lewis, Georgeanna Sixkiller, Bob Lewis, and Oscar Eiteneir look on impatiently.

Chris Woods adjusts a collar of computer tape after her selection as "the ideal date at AHS."

Since a computer dance had never one of the year's most well-attended

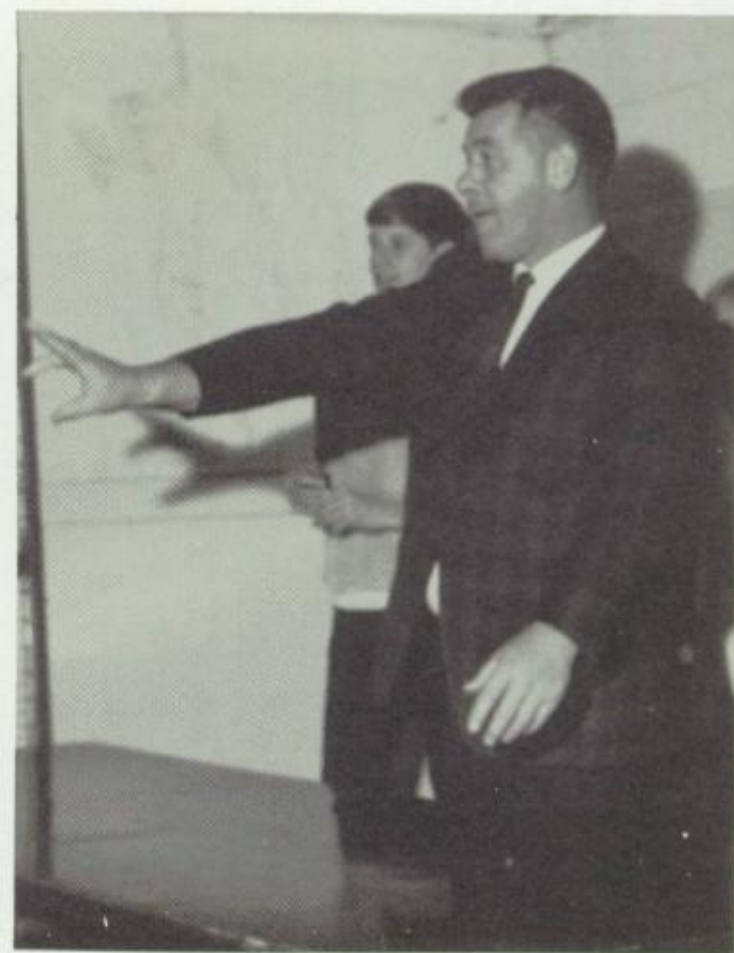

The Class of 1967 sponsored a Mardi Gras dance for the student body in October. One of the features of the event was a "computer dance." Students were matched with their ideal date on the basis of information compiled and fed into a card-sorting computer. Various novelty booths provided fun for those in attendance and revenue for the senior class treasury.

Jack Farmer applies finishing touches to ceiling decorations.

At the left, prior to the dance, seniors spent hours decorating the cafeteria in the traditional Mardi Gras manner. Rick Waddell does his share of the work while Doug Fremd and Bill Pettitt stand by to help. Class President Mike Knapp struggles with the water hose that was later used in the dunking tank.

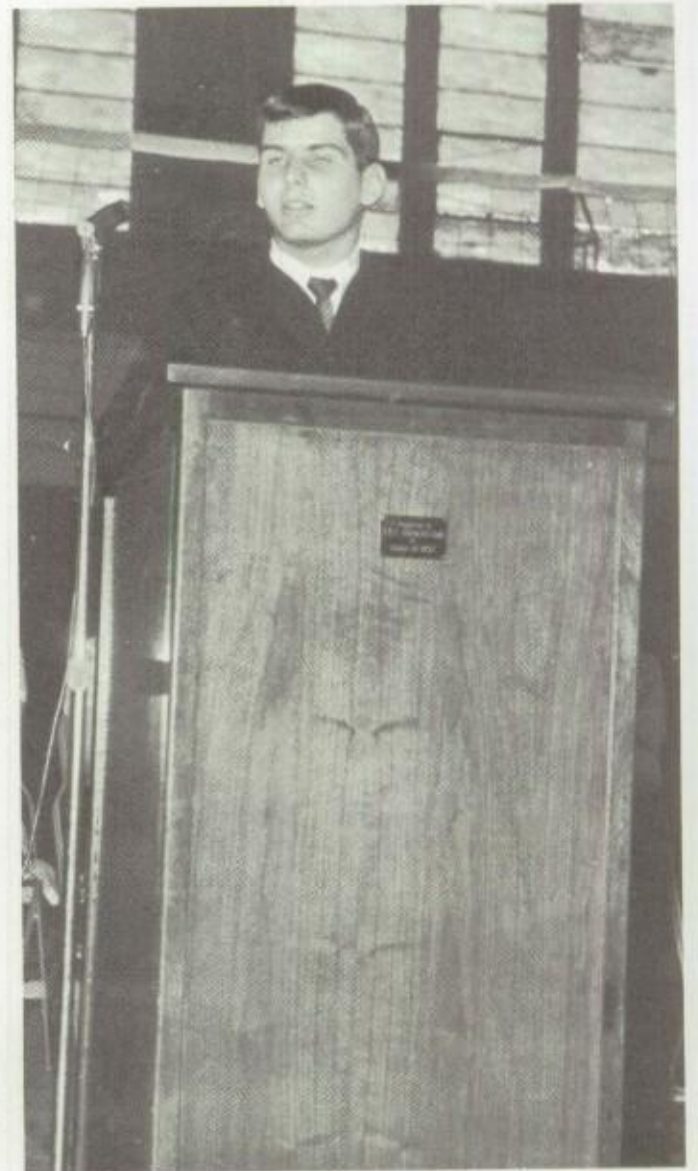

Dewayne Price leaves the voting booth to place his ballot in the box after voting for his choice.

Nonda Ainsworth presents the persuading speech that won her the position of student body secretary.

Kathy Hill, candidate for the office of second vice-president, gives her campaign speech to the students. Kathy was elected to the office.

Candidate Alan Engstrom explains his ideas and plans for the future if he should be elected to the office of student body president. He won the position.

Heidi Hooper, Marlene Bohn, Lavon Phelps, Pam Howard, Anne Schwiebert, Judy Phelps and Sheila Hutchinson express joy and enthusiasm at being named varsity cheerleaders for the 1967-68 school year. Judy Phelps was named yell queen

Seniors Barbara Reinholdt and Nicki Benbrook and junior Robert Williamson register to vote for student body officers.

Steve Hagert, candidate for student body first vice-president, presents his ideas and plans to the students during the campaign assembly. He was elected.

The talent show presented on May 26, 1967, in the Ashland High School gymnasium consisted of a variety of acts ranging from brass band sounds to a violin solo. Participants were Lynette Cornwall, Barbara Sorensen, Cathy Phelps, Monte Bradshaw, Linda Green, Greg Lewis, Lilette Tumbagahan, Jon Olson, Lon Gossage, John Perry, Sharon Kitzman, Lynn Bessonette, and a group of senior girls led by Kathy O'Harra. Masters of ceremonies were Judy Phelps and Bruce Oden. Proceeds of the show were turned over to the AHS Associated Student Body.

At the close of the show, Barbara Sorensen led the audience, cast, and stage crew in singing the "Alma Mater."

Jon Olson, Lon Gossage, and John Perry sing "Banua" and "500 Miles."

Barbara Sorenson and Lynette Cornwall sing "He's Everything to Me."

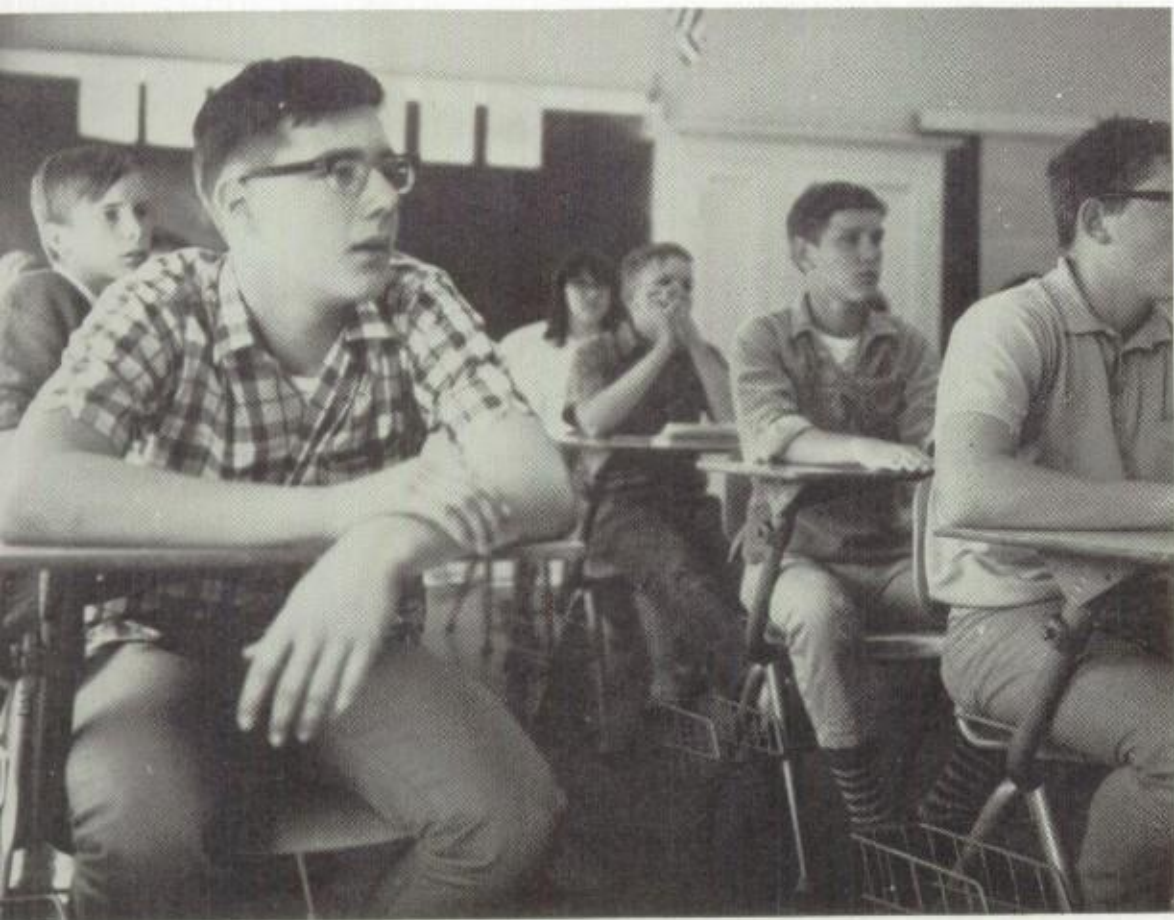

Lynn Bessonette accompanies himself on the guitar while he sings "Summertime," "Unchained Melody," "Take Your Time," and "Little Black Egg."

Lilette Tumbaghan presents her unusual dance routine to the music of "Binasu-an."

Ninth Graders Visit A.H.S.

Students listen attentively to their orientation into high school.

Every year ninth graders from the Ashland Junior High spend one afternoon visiting the senior high school. This visitation is designed to orient the students as to what is expected of them and to help the future sophomores locate the rooms for their classes for the next year. Students spend ten minutes in each class, listening to a brief resume of what their next years subjects will include.

Rushing to their next class, future sophomores enjoy the brief stay with their future teachers and classes.

Lost and confused, a ninth grader seeks directions from helpers Kathy Neal and Larry Cullop.

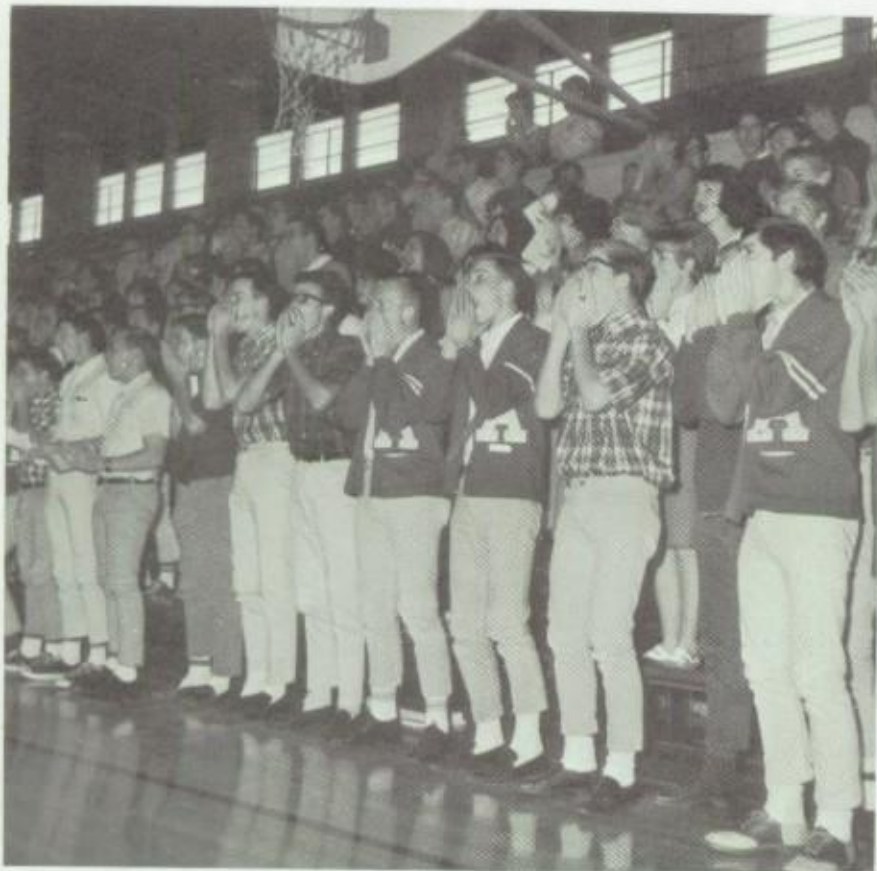

Assemblies Offer Change in Routine

Dale Balog and Allyn Myers smile at the performance of other Flag Girls in a skit at a pep assembly.

Throughout the course of the year, many assemblies were held for the student body. On Fridays during football and basketball seasons, the rally squad took charge of the pep assemblies. Also during the year there were several National Assembly programs. Students received letters and other awards at several award assemblies. At the end of the school year, an assembly was held at which was announced the names of the recipients of senior scholarships and honors.

Joey Williamson and Chris Wiley were honored by the senior class for their contributions. Joey was president of Lettermen's Club and co-captain of the football team. Other sports he participated in were basketball and baseball. Chris was yell queen.

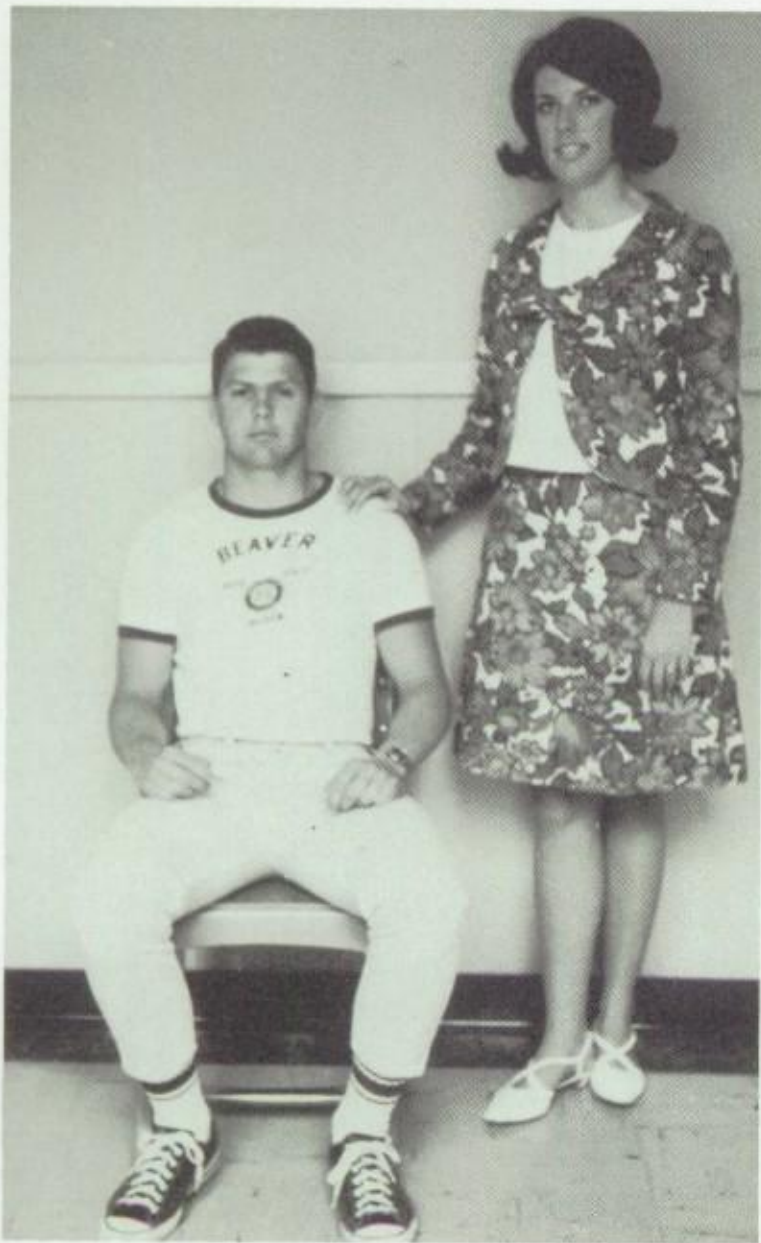

Mike Knapp was selected for his great leadership of the senior class.

Jan Gray and Dave Work were honored for their work on the Rogue News, and The Rogue, annual, and their work in drama. Jan was also a member of the senior class Evaluation Committee

Class Members

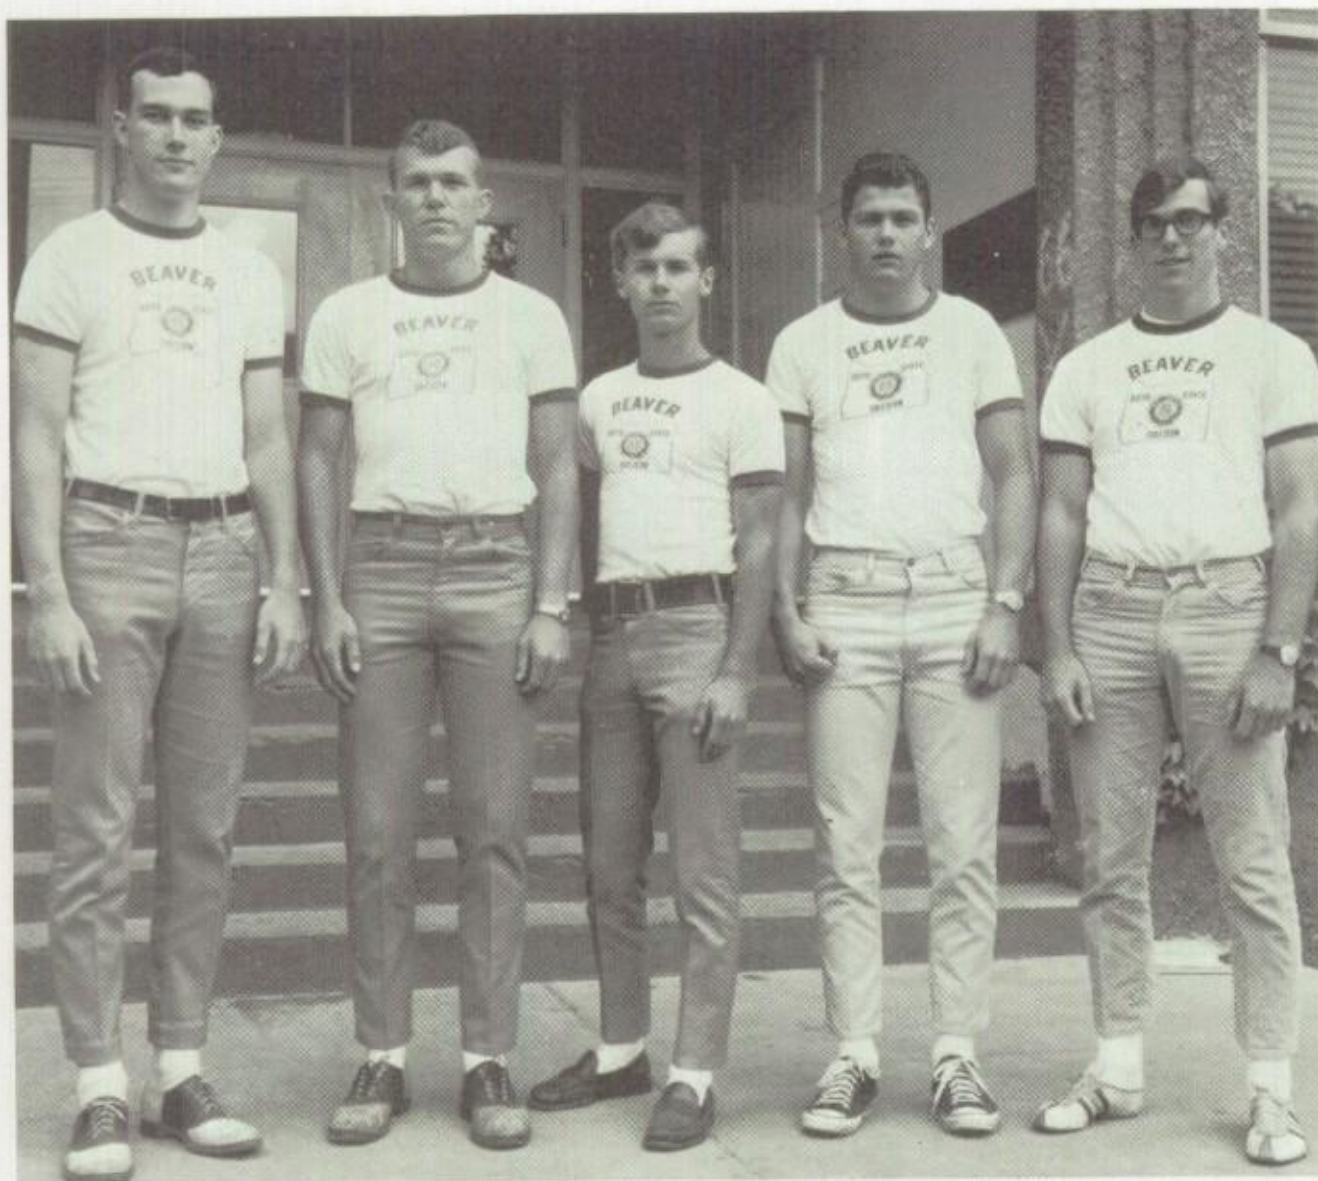

Gene "Tex" Willis and Ann Colwell were honored for their many activities. Tex was co-captain of the football team. He also participated in basketball and track. Ann was first vice-president of the student body and president of Inter-club Council.

The Senior class chose these people by popular vote for their outstanding contribution to the class this year. The two people receiving the most votes, Mike Knapp and Kathy Neal, were given the title of Mr. and Miss AHS. Mike was chosen Mr. AHS because of the many class activities he planned and organized, and because of his leadership. Kathy Neal was chosen Miss AHS because of her leadership as student body president.

Joyce Taylor was editor of The Rogue, school annual. She also was a member of Senior Evaluation Committee. Mel Clements was the photographer for both The Rogue and the Rogue News, school newspaper. He, too, was a member of Senior Evaluation Committee.

Craig Korthase, Joey Williamson, Scott Weaver, Gene Willis and Gary Hooper attended Boys' State in the summer of 1966.

Girls representing Ashland at Girls' State in 1966 were Barbara Sorensen and Cathy Phelps.

Representing Ashland at the Fellowship of Christian Athletes were Joey Williamson, John Mitchell, Gene Willis, and Dick Calhoun.

The purpose of the Girls Recreation Association is to encourage interest in Girl's activities and to provide a variety of such activities in which high school girls can participate. The Recreational program this year included basketball, track, and gymnastics, in which AHS girls competed with girls from other schools. The Powderpuff game, a money-making project, provided many spectators with a laugh as GRA defeated the Lettermen and then lost to a faculty alumni team. Another money-making project was a bottle drive in October. The proceeds from these projects paid for award pins and a picnic in June.

Lettermen Honor Dr. Hald

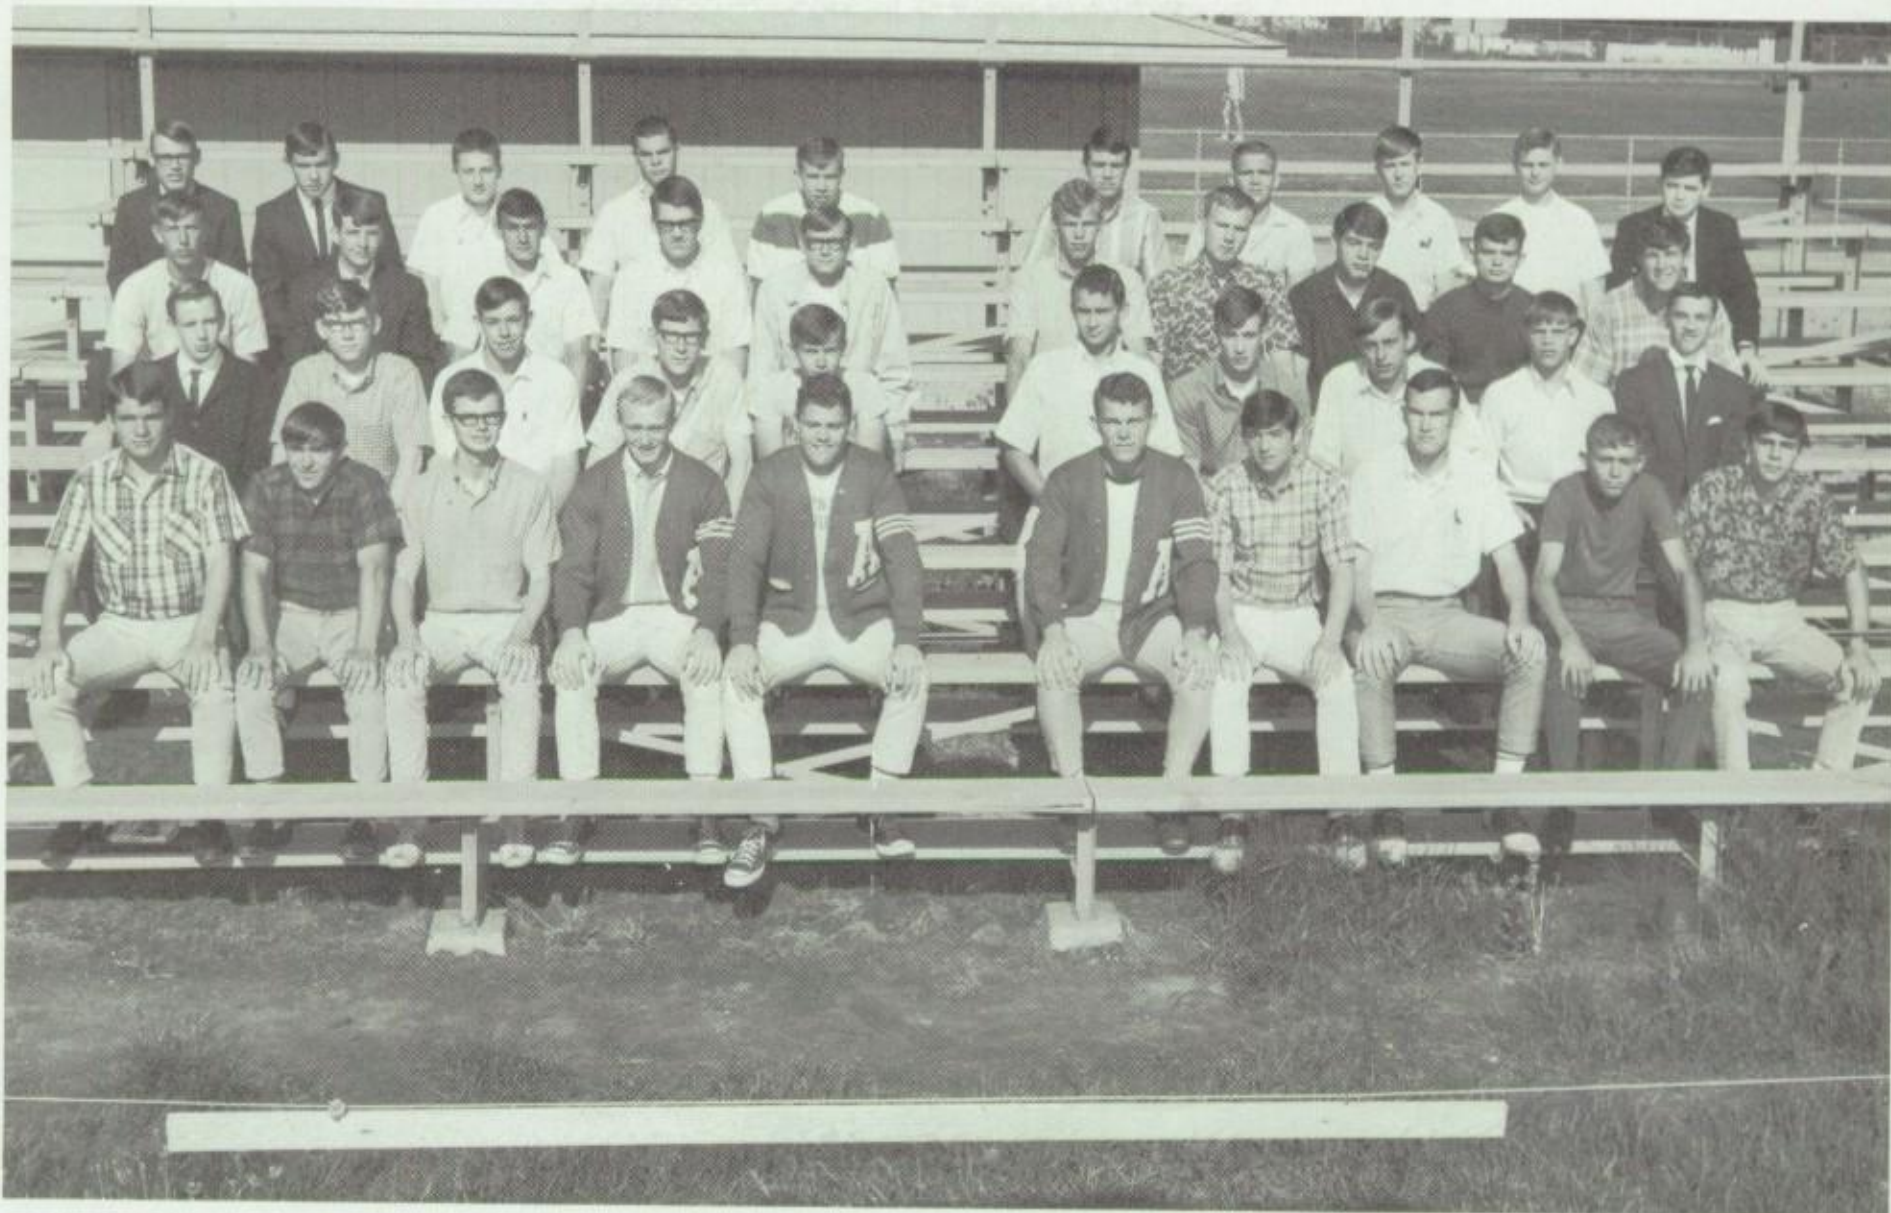

Lettermen's Club is an organization for those boys who have lettered in at least one sport in high school. Annual activities include painting the "A" on Mt. Grizzly, ushering at ball games. Also there are fall and spring initiations of new members. In addition to their annual activities the club also sponsored magazine sales and dances. This year a winter banquet was introduced for club members. Mr. Keil advised the club.

Joey Williamson served as president of Lettermen's Club.

Flag Girls Give Guest Perform-

Flag Girls line up in one of the many formations they used at games during both basketball and football season.

The main purposes of Flag Girls are to teach girls how to work as a part of a team and yet still contribute as an individual, how to remain composed while performing under pressure, how to react instantly to the unexpected, and how to contribute a part of themselves in support of their school and its activities. New members who are recruited each year from both the high school and junior high must have and maintain a 2.0 GPA. In addition to performing at local games, the girls traveled to games held in Red Bluff, California; Salem, Oregon; and Roseburg, Oregon. They also accompanied the band to give a guest appearance in Berkley, California. Fund-raising activities to finance out-of-town performances were selling bumper stickers and keychains, holding rummage sales and baked food sales.

Senior Nicki Benbrook and junior Vicki Dedrick served throughout the year as head line leaders. Jodi Tyler was head flag girl.

The Grizzette — Lettermen's Club float proclaims the theme of the 1966 Homecoming parade. The Year of the Bear is written (backward) in strange oriental hieroglyphics.

Sports Activities

Traditionally, the Grizzettes have provided spirit at all home football and basketball games. This year, however, the Grizzettes traveled to Red Bluff, California for a nonconference football game and the group made many trips to Medford, Crater, and Grants Pass for both football and basketball games. The girls sold sweatshirts and sponsored a workday to raise money for transportation to these events.

At the 1967 award assembly, President Paula Hoffman announced '67-'68 officers. They are Debbie Slapnicka, secretary-treasurer; and Georgeanna Sixkiller, vice-president. New President Theresa Myers was also honored as this year's outstanding Grizzette.

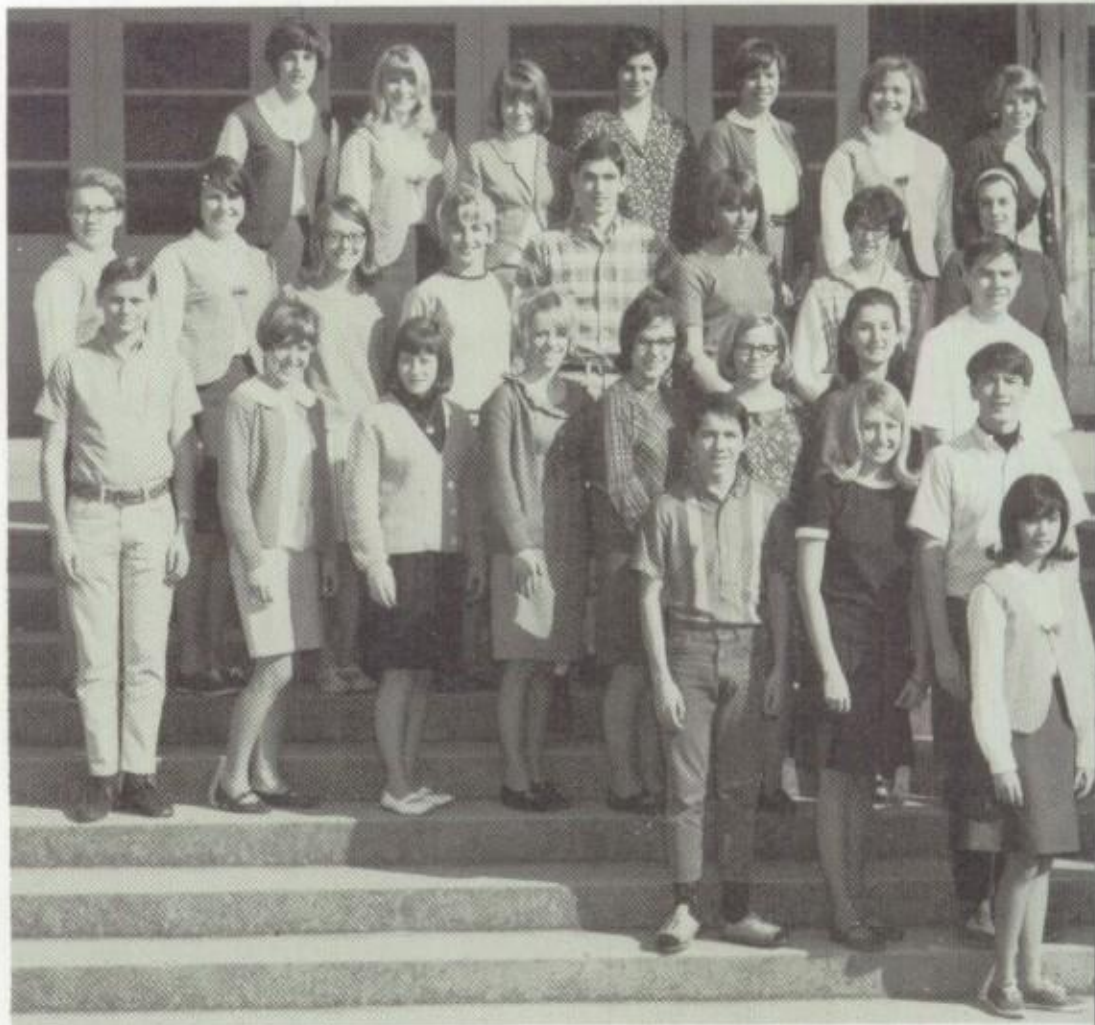

Grizzettes form an "isle of spirit" as Gene (Tex) Willis breaks through the Grizzly banner at the beginning of the Roseburg game.

The American Field Service Club has a twofold purpose: to act between the American Field Service foreign exchange student attending AHS and the student body and to earn money to help send a qualified Ashland High student abroad under the Americans Abroad program. During the year the members served refreshments at an open house honoring Lilette Tumbaghan. They also gave a surprise birthday party for her. They held a dinner for AFS club and chapter members. Finally they sponsored an AFS Week which was culminated by an assembly honoring Lilette and visiting AFS students from other schools. Mrs. Zwick is school advisor for the group.

The AHS chapter of Future Teachers of America was formed for the purpose of enabling high school students to explore the field of teaching as a career. This year's FTA chapter had one member elected to a state post. The organization awarded a scholarship to Laura Rose which enables her to attend a summer conference on teaching.

Grizzly Knights Take First In Float Competition

Grizzly Knights is a service organization at AHS. During football and basketball seasons, members patrolled the football field and the gymnasium to prevent people without tickets from entering. During wrestling matches, Grizzly Knights sold and took tickets at the door. The members entered a float in the Homecoming Parade. They also sponsored an after-game dance. Mr. Hall was club advisor.

"He's (Dave Work) come to borrow money," confides Doug Kirby to the audience in the one-act play, "The Marriage Proposal."

In a night that offered slap-stick comedy and spine-tingling mystery, the audience enjoyed three one-act plays sponsored by AHS Drama Guild. One of the plays was a traditional fantasy, "The Ugly Duckling," about an ugly princess and the problems involved in finding her a husband. The other, also a comedy, "A Marriage Proposal," concerned an infinite number of problems a young man faces when asking for his beloved's hand. The third play was a murder mystery, "Sorry, Wrong Number," with a surprise ending.

Demons that torture a helpless cripple, Moya Sander, in "Sorry, Wrong Number," are Enid Langer, Terry Spence, Debbie Dillon, Mike Pollard, Renee Dreiszus, Heather Edmonds, Marilyn Thomas, Steve Buckelew, Nancy Beecher, Kent Brostad, and Marilyn Miller.

Girls' League Award a Scholarship

Girls' League officers are Lynette Cornwall, secretary; Barbara Sorensen, president; and Barbara Hormel, vice-president.

Helping to promote friendship between all girls in the school and community is the purpose of the Girls' League. Membership for Girls' League includes all girls enrolled at AHS. Their main activity is the fund raising candy sale for a scholarship. The scholarship was presented to Carolyn Hassell this year.

SEASON RECAP: The first two games of the season against Lebanon and McNary were easy wins for the Bears. The Grizzly eleven beat them 36-6 and 34-6 respectively. The next game, against Roseburg, was the best game of the season. The Bears were trailing until the third quarter. The defensive eleven held the Indians to 22 points while the offense racked up 27 points. The Bears dropped their next three games to Red Bluff, 0-16, Medford, 7-41, and Albany, 14-34. Against Grants Pass, the Bears again came from behind to beat the Cavemen by 7 points, 20-13. The Pelicans, in a game played here, beat the Bears 7-27. The Homecoming game, the last game of the season, was also the final victory. The Bears won the game 18-7. The '66 football year was a very

SEASON RECAP

This year, the girls' gymnastics team sported a fair season, with 2 wins and 4 losses. The 2 wins came against Mazama High School in a pre-season match, 42-32, and against Klamath Union High School in the first match of the regular season, 47-27. Four matches were dropped to Crater and to Medford High Schools. The first Crater meet was a close one, the Comets edging the Bruinettes, 49-48. At the second meeting of the two, the Comets took the match 50 to 29. The other two losses were in matches with the Medford Black Tornado. The "Big Wind" took the first match 60-15. The second match proved another decisive win for Medford, the score being 56-21 in favor of the Black Tornado.

This year marks the culmination of a six-year accelerated mathematics program. The new math system was originally designed to enable students to be better prepared to meet the world's changing society and increased technological advances. The program, designed to benefit all students, has a wide scope as to the time a course can be taken. For example, algebra courses may be started as early as the eighth grade or as late as the twelfth grade.

Modern Problems, Debate I - II

U.S. History teachers orient their courses to include a complete coverage of past events with discussions about the effect of these events on today and tomorrow.

Modern problems instructors teach a course that ranges from a detailed study of Communism to Civil Defense. They also help seniors in research for required occupational reports.

Communication—Key To Understanding

A study of French and Spanish contribute to a better future. Students learn not only a foreign language but also the customs and traditions of a country. Students sing, converse, read, and write in the language they study. Students also learn folk dances from France or Spain.

Students Selected for Able and Gifted Program

"Jan Gray, where did you get all those books anyway? Come on! It couldn't have been that difficult. Oh, you say that the selection committee made one minor error . . ."

Students who participated in the Able and Gifted program at the SOC campus last winter were selected by a faculty committee on the basis of Iowa and I.Q. test scores and teacher recommendation. Those finally chosen were ROW 1: C. Houghton, A. Engstrom, G. Lawrence, T. Spence, M. Alley, P. Hoffman, L. Tumbleson, L. Tumbaghan, K. Brostad, L. Bohn, G. Prickett. ROW 2: J. Davis, T. Walker, L. Nickodemus, E. Langer, S. Rountree, N. Beecher, J. Nidever, M. Reynolds, J. Cox, M. Everett, J. Taylor. ROW 3: J. Williams, C. White, M. Whillock, R. Williamson, D. Kirby, S. Beecher, D. Work, J. Belland, D. Pederson, J. Gray. ROW 4: C. Kirby, B. Petitt, T. Berninghausen, B. Lindow, L. Gross, J. Holland, J. G. Smith, J. Stephenson.

Seminar Members Discuss Literature

Mrs. Zwick, advisor for seminar, distributes reading material to Joyce Taylor and Dave Work, seminar members.

The discussion in this year's seminar meetings revolved around the following books: All the King's Men, Death of a Salesman, Light in August, Gone With the Wind, A Farewell to Arms, Wuthering Heights, The Medea, Sister Carrie, and Of Human Bondage. The group also met to discuss such subjects as art and music. The meetings were held weekly in the homes of the members. The topics discussed were related to events in the twentieth century.

CLASSES

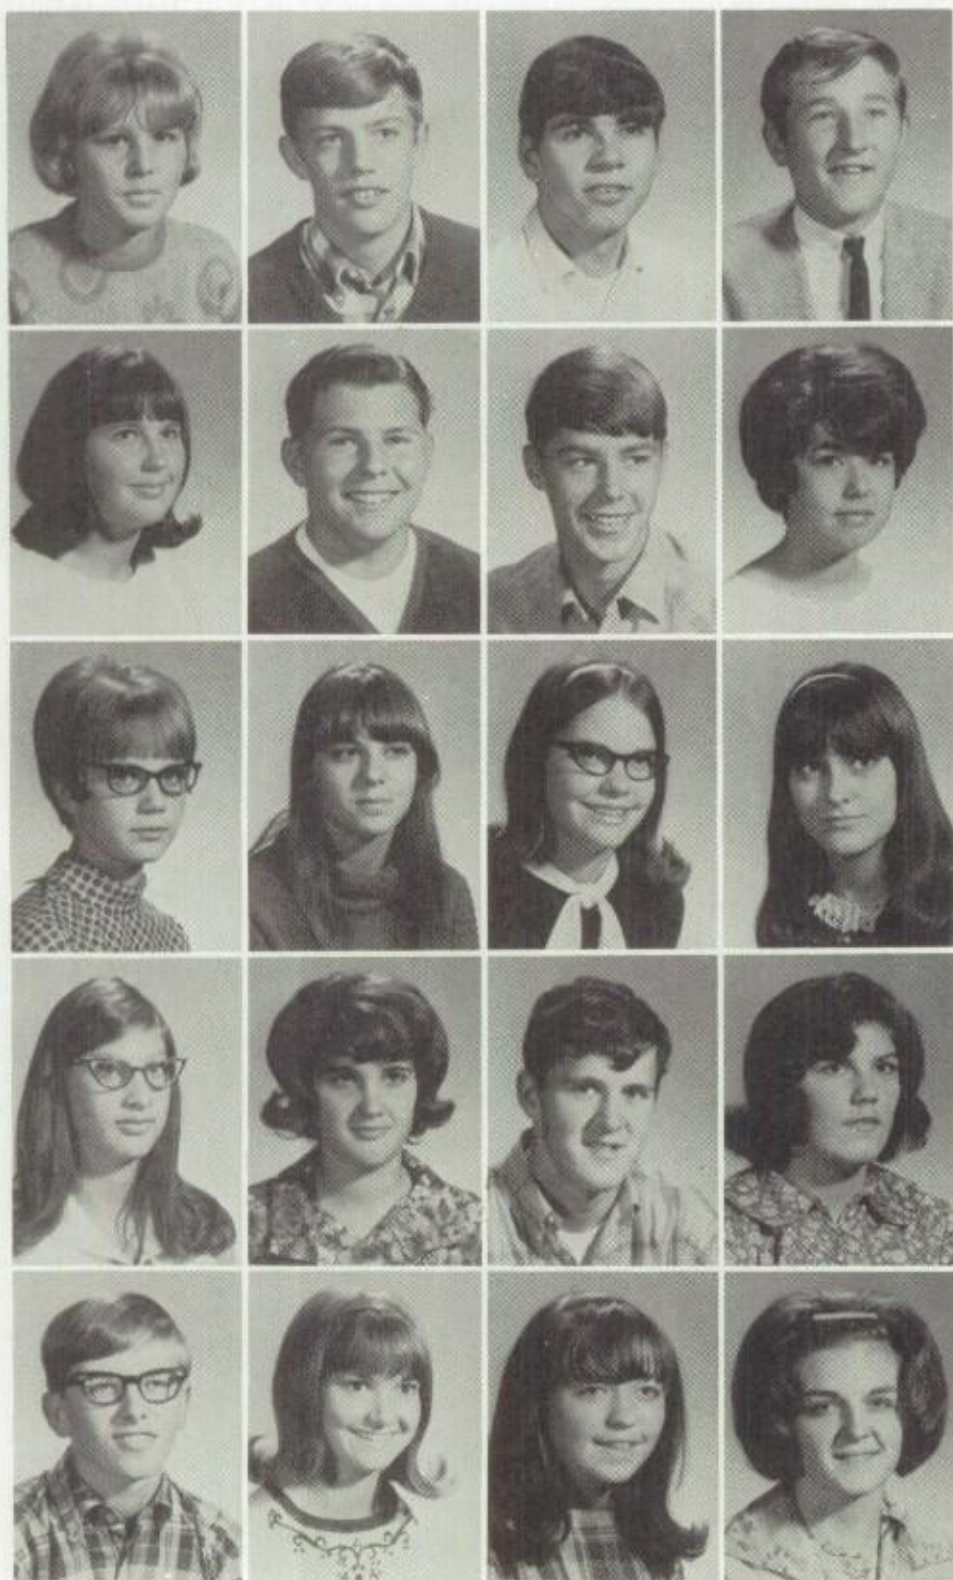

During the opening week of school, AHS tradition dictates that sophomores enter the back door. Senior Dave Work directs sophomores Phil Burns and Brenda Taylor to the proper entrance.

Constructing a homecoming float is the first project each class entering AHS undertakes. This year's float featured the parade theme.

Seniors Present Irish Comedy

November 16, 17, 18 were the dates of the Senior Class Play. Mr. Marlan Shanks directed Synge's The Playboy of the Western World, an Irish comedy played in modern style. The play concerned a young man, Christopher, who thought he killed his father. Chris came to a small village and fell in love with the inn-keeper's daughter. Soon, though, Chris' father returned. Chris and his father then left the village forever because the townspeople almost hanged Chris for a murder he did not commit.

Marilyn Miller, Carolyn Hassell, and Dani Bulkley look on as Sammy Jamison, Curtis White, Dave Work and Kent Brostad prepare to hang Jim Williams.

Below, Chris Mahon, Jim Williams, exclaims his disbelief as the Widow Quin, played by Lisa Tumbleson, and Sara Tansey, Kelly Reed, try to disguise him.

The Senior Class of 1967 has rightfully earned the title of one of the most active classes in recent years. Under the leadership of its president, Mike Knapp, the class was able to plan and carry out several unusual activities. One of these was a Barbecue-Hayride and Barn Dance held during the fall. During the winter, another event was a
